Construction Site BMP Workshop

Thursday, October 11, 2012
Kalahari Resort, Sandusky Ohio

Session A - Agenda

7:30 am	Check-in, Coffee & Light Breakfast
8:00 am	Crystal Dymond, Erie Soil and Water Conservation District Welcome and introductions Lynette Hablitzel, Ohio EPA Division of Surface Water Permit requirements, common issues, & audits
9:00 am	John Mathews, ODNR Ohio's Rainwater & Land Development Manual – What is it and how should it be used? Recent updates and post-construction requirements
10:00 am	Break
10:15 am	Heather Elmer, Old Woman Creek National Estuarine Research Reserve and Crystal Dymond, Erie SWCD Working together to implement credits and incentives for innovative stormwater management
10:45 am	Randy Spann, Kalahari Facilities Manager/Chief Engineer and Kenneth Fortney, Erie County Drainage Manager Kalahari Resort stormwater management case study
11:30 am	City of Toledo, Environmental Utilities Dept. Updates and projects in the City of Toledo
12:00 pm	Lunch Served Educational video will be shown during lunch
12:45 pm	Board buses and travel to active construction site
1:00 pm	Site visit - Perkins Township Administrative Bldg. Inspect an active construction site with assistance from OEPA staff on hand to answer questions and provide technical advice
1:45 pm	Buses return to Kalahari Resort
2:00 pm	BMP tour at Kalahari Resort
3:15 pm	Question/Wrap Up and Collect Certificates Adjourn

Additional Partners include: City of Toledo, Wood Soil & Water Conservation District, Ottawa Soil & Water Conservation District, Erie County Engineer and Kalahari Engineering Department.

Construction Site BMP Workshop
Thursday, October 11, 2012
Location: Kalahari Resort, Sandusky Ohio

Session B - Agenda

7:30am	Registrations, Coffee & Light Breakfast
8:00am	Welcome-Crystal Dymond, Erie Soil and Water Conservation District
	Dan Ross, CESSWI Regional Area Representative Certified Erosion, Sediment, Storm Water Inspector (CESSWI) review course
12:00pm	Working lunch (provided)
1:00pm	Continue review course
2:00pm	Board bus and travel to active construction site
2:15pm	Site visit - Perkins Township Administrative Bldg. Inspect an active construction site with assistance from OEPA staff on hand to answer questions and provide technical advice
3:00pm	Board bus and return to Kalahari Resort
3:15	Questions/Wrap Up and Collect Certificates Adjourn

Breaks will be provided.

Additional Partners include: City of Toledo, Wood Soil & Water Conservation District, Ottawa Soil & Water Conservation District, Erie County Engineer and Kalahari Engineering Department.